

Bespoke Education International Paris Schools

Bespoke Education is a leading test preparation and tutoring firm based in New York City with clients in many countries, from England and France to Australia and Brazil. Families who live abroad appreciate the opportunity to work with highly trained tutors from the United States as their children prepare for college-entrance exams.

Bespoke offers test preparation services that are specifically tailored to American and International Schools as well as those with bilingual programs, including SAT and ACT classes offered both on your campus and at Bespoke's office at Reid Hall near Montparnasse. Bespoke currently runs SAT and ACT courses at The American School of Paris (ASP), The International School of Paris (ISP), and the Ecole Active Bilangue Victor Hugo, and we have expanded our course offerings to include a range of SAT2 subject tests, such as Biology and Math Levels 1 and 2.

Bespoke's SAT, ACT, and SAT 2 courses feature the following:

- Small class sizes (generally limited to 10-12 students) for maximum individual attention.
- 350+ page student lesson books, which contain top-quality proprietary content created by Bespoke's curriculum developers:
 - Test-like practice questions and step-by-step strategy lessons
 - Homework that accompanies each lesson
 - Over 1200 vocabulary words plus word roots and word groups
 - Math formulas, sample essays, and much more.
- Course content can be customized based on students' needs, from basic to advanced, in a modular format that is adaptable to the school and its student population, with more math or less reading for example.
- Mock testing using real, released exams and supplemented with detailed feedback and section-by-section analysis, including essay comments.
- On-going help after the course ends via in-person or remote tutoring with Bespoke's tutors.

If you would like more information about having Bespoke run test prep classes at your school and how those classes might be customized to best suit your needs, please contact Bespoke's Founder and CEO, Tim Levin: by email at Tim@BespokeEducation.com or by phone at +1-212-286-2227 x100. Tim Levin, Founder and CEO

Tim holds a BA in Psychology from Yale College and a Masters in Education from Columbia University Teachers College. Prior to founding Bespoke Education, he worked in the corporate offices of Kaplan Test Prep helping to train teachers and write course curricula. He is the author of Kaplan's GRE Biology retail book, and he has been an adjunct professor in the Math and Science Departments of both SUNY's Fashion Institute of Technology and Columbia University's Teachers College. For nearly twenty years, he has tutored in a variety of subject areas and for nearly every standardized test.

Bespoke Education International Pricing and Scheduling Options

Bespoke has several models for working with international schools.

- 1-to-2 Week Intensives
 - Bespoke's school programs are generally configured as intensive one- or two-week long courses. Students have class for three or four hours each day over a five-day period (Monday through Friday) for a total of 15-20 hours of instruction. In this time frame, Bespoke's teachers cover our full SAT or ACT curriculum, including practice testing.
 - These classes are usually done over vacation periods, such as during Toussaint.
 - We also offer longer classes, which include more opportunities to analyze real, released tests and practice more advanced test-taking strategies.
- Ongoing Classes
 - If the school's schedule is such that short, intensive courses would be too difficult to do, or if you'd like to offer a range of courses including some that meet 1-2 times per week over several months, Bespoke's local test prep tutors in Paris can teach classes on an ongoing basis.
 - Bespoke can also provide a curriculum to use for the course and can provide training for school faculty to teach the courses.
- Teacher Training / Content Licensing
 - For schools that already offer an SAT or ACT program but wish to enhance the quality and specificity of instruction, Bespoke is available to train your teachers in our curriculum and have the school license our materials.

International class fees are usually in the range of 40-50 U.S. dollars (30-35 Euros) per hour per student when taught by Bespoke's teachers. Curricular materials and licensing fees can be negotiated on a school-by-school basis and are usually 50-100 Euros per student depending on volume.
