

Bespoke Education SAT Prep at EAB 2011

Introduction to the SAT (SAT Basic and Intermediate)

Bespoke's SAT review course will improve your confidence and test-taking skills by giving you an in-depth knowledge of the SAT exam so that you can walk in on Test Day knowing exactly what to do. Join us for this course that runs throughout the school year so you'll get regular practice every week. Classes will cover the content and strategies for all sections of the SAT and will include both Bespoke's materials and real, released questions. Regular mock testing will allow you to practice what you are learning in class in test-like conditions with real, released exams.

Classes will take place at EAB Thursdays from 5-630pm, December 8 – April 12.

14 sessions, 21 hours total. Fee: €595

Registration due by: October 30th

About Bespoke Education, Inc.

Bespoke Education is a leading test preparation and tutoring firm based in New York City with clients in many countries, from England and France to Australia and Brazil. Families who live abroad appreciate the opportunity to work with highly trained tutors from the United States as their children prepare for college-entrance exams. Bespoke currently runs test prep courses at several Paris schools, including The American School of Paris (ASP) and The International School of Paris (ISP).

Bespoke's SAT courses feature the following:

- Small class sizes (generally limited to 10-12 students) for maximum individual attention.
- 350+ page student lesson books, which contain top-quality proprietary content created by Bespoke's curriculum developers:
 - Test-like practice questions and step-by-step strategy lessons
 - Homework that accompanies each lesson
 - Over 1200 vocabulary words plus word roots and word groups
 - Math formulas, sample essays, and much more.
- Mock testing using real, released exams and supplemented with detailed feedback and section-by-section analysis, including essay comments (time permitting).
